

Declaration by the Netherlands

The Netherlands interprets the provision on level of representation in article 1, paragraph 5 of the Rules of Procedure for the appeal committee to mean that it is the member state that determines who is to represent it in the appeal committee. The possibilities include representation at senior civil servant or ministerial level.